John G Corse Funeral Directors is an independent family owned business, providing a professional, caring and understanding service to bereaved families when it matters most. Having been in the family from 1978, it is currently under the management of John Corse since the death of his father in 1995. Summer 2010

John's son Calum joined the business full time, in January 2014 Calum received his final certificates from the IFD College to gain his Certificate in Funeral Practice. In August 2016 John's son Ross joined the family business, this now takes the business into the 3rd generation of the Corse family. In February 2021 Malcolm Scott joined the team, Malcolm is well known through the community in Orkney.

We give full advisory on all aspects of burial and cremation. All funeral arrangements vary according to the bereaved family's wishes, it can be a very stressful and emotional time when you have lost a loved one, at John Corse Funeral Director's we strive to maintain the high standard of service we provide so with our caring, understanding and sympathetic attitude we will make this difficult distressing time as stress free as possible for the bereaved family.

Member of S.A.I.F (National Society of Allied and Independent Funeral Directors)

Being a member of S.A.I.F., we have a strict code of practice to adhere to. This guarantees our services are at a very high standard of professionalism. We are proud to say we are the most northerly member of National S.A.I.F. & we are Orkney's only funeral directors who are members of any trade association.

Through Golden Charter, the UK's leading funeral plan provider, we offer peace of mind by allowing you to plan and pay for your funeral in advance.

All arrangements are carefully finalised personally by John, Calum, Ross or Malcolm who are well known in the community for carrying out their duties in a very professional and dignified manner. Just give us a call and your requirements can be arranged in your own home, or our funeral home, whilst you can be assured they will always be treated in the strictest of confidence.
